Notes for Guidance

1. Ardglass Golf Club is a private club and its management arrangements, including those relating to the admission of a new member, are subject to the approval of its members. For practical purposes the management and administration of the Club is vested in the Council of the Club and all nominations for membership are therefore considered by the Council.
2. The number of nominations will on occasion exceed the number of places available. These notes for guidance seek to explain the nomination process so that all nominees can take the opportunity presented to make those charged with selection aware of all the factors which may serve to promote their nomination.
3. It is important to note that it is the responsibility of the nominee or his / her proposer or seconder to arrange suitable introductions to Council Members. It is difficult for a nomination to be accepted unless the Council Member can speak in support of the applicant.

Information for nominee

4. Nominations are invited from anyone with a genuine interest in becoming a member and who is prepared to abide by club rules and bye-laws. The Club is committed to providing a harmonious environment and equality of opportunity for its members regardless of an individual's, gender, religion, marital status, disability, sexual orientation, political opinion, colour, race or ethnic origin.
5. Nominations may be made for the following categories. Please enter only one category in the appropriate space on the nomination form.
Full Membership 7 Day;
Full Membership 6 Day;
Full Membership 5 Day;
External Membership
Under 22 – Age - 19-22
Junior – Age 15 –18
Juvenile –age 10-15
House Member (Access to Club House only)

6. The nomination form should be completed in full. If you have no response to a particular question please enter “None” or “Not Applicable”.
Nominations must be sent or delivered to the Club Office before the closing date. Late Nominations will not be considered. All nominations will be acknowledged within a few days of receipt. If you do not receive an acknowledgement please contact the Office
7. The names and addresses of all applicant will be posted on the Club Notice Board. For a period of 14 days to allow existing members the opportunity to give an opinion regarding any nomination being considered.

Information for proposers / seconders

8. It is incumbent on those proposing or seconding a nomination to ensure that they are qualified to do so i.e. that they have been full members for a period of at least 3 years.
9. Members proposing or seconding a nomination should be in a position to vouch for the integrity of the nominee. They should use the space provided on the nomination form to state the capacity in which they know the nominee and provide some general background, commenting in particular on the nominee's suitability as a member.
10. Following an initial screening the nominees will be invited to an interview with the President and Vice-Captain. The names of those successful will be presented to Council for ratification following which a letter offering membership will be issued. Unsuccessful nominees will be informed and may reapply within the rules and regulations as laid out.
11. It is important to note that all nominations for membership are made and accepted on the strict understanding that Ardglass Golf Club, or its employees or agents will not be obliged to assign any reason or enter any correspondence or discussion regarding the success or otherwise of any nomination.
